

Residential Children's Home - Strategies-based Workshop

Residential Children's Home – Strategies-based Workshop with Sarah Naish and Sarah Dillon

Sarah Dillon has experience of therapeutic work in children's home and Sarah Naish has run small groups of therapeutic children's homes in the past. Together they do bespoke training for residential units. Strategies-based workshop - Starting off with why children do what they do, the trainers will then open this up for delegates to provide them with scenarios, and they will look at those in detail with strategies to manage that behaviour in their particular environment.
